Profile Summary

AI-focused Computer Science student with hands-on experience building LLM-powered web applications using Claude API, prompt engineering, and full-stack development. Skilled in rapid prototyping, researching emerging AI technologies, and building AI tools. Passionate about Generative AI, automation systems, and modern web applications, with a track record of moving projects from concept to live deployment. Seeking internships in AI/ML Engineering, Generative AI, or Full-Stack AI Product Development.

Independent AI Projects

2026 – Present

Building and deploying AI-powered web applications using Claude API, OpenAI, and Gemini, applying prompt engineering and AI-assisted development tools (Cursor AI, Bolt.new 🔗, Windsurf) across the full stack.

CourseForge AI — github.com/ToshitSai/courseforge-ai 🔗 AI-powered course generation platform — turns a single topic prompt into a full course outline, lessons, and quizzes.

HireScope AI — github.com/ToshitSai/job-gem-grader 🔗 AI-based recruitment system that analyzes resumes and coding profiles to generate hiring insights.

AvengersDoomsDay — <https://github.com/ToshitSai/Avengers-DoomsDay-> 🔗 themed frontend showcase project built with responsive UI, animations, and interactive elements to demonstrate hands-on frontend development and design skills.
